JOB TITLE

Contractor

JOB DESCRIPTION

Your job is to obtain items and to deliver them to officially designated locations, the mode of acquisition being irrelevant as far as conformable to the corporate manifesto. Deliveries will be made once per week as a minimum unless otherwise coordinated. You will be paid reference prices of at least market value using the in-game contract system. Please see our forums for detailed procedures and a list of items in demand.

Contracting for individual corporation members such as our Industrialists is not governed by this agreement but subject to private negotiation.

Formally joining the corporation is desired but not mandatory when operating as a Contractor.
